

Take Your Seat!

Wilmington Symphony Orchestra Chair Endowments

Endowing an Orchestra Chair is a great way to provide a gift to the Wilmington Symphony Orchestra Endowment Fund that will help ensure a sound financial future. Gifts to the Endowment Fund can also offer a thoughtful and lasting way to honor and remember a family member or friend, while benefiting the orchestra for years to come.

Permanent Chair Endowments: Program recognition in perpetuity.

- WSO Conductor - $100,000
- Youth Orchestra Conductor - $75,000
- Concert Master - $50,000
- Principal Musician - $30,000
- Musician - $20,000

Twenty-Year Chair Endowment: Program recognition as chair endowment for twenty years after which the gift is recognized in perpetuity as a legacy gift and the chair is available for re-endowment.

- WSO Conductor - $50,000
- Youth Orchestra Conductor - $40,000
- Concert Master - $25,000
- Principal Musician - $15,000
- Musician - $10,000

Current Twenty-Year Chair Endowment Gifts:

First Violin – Second Stand, Outside Chair: The Robert W. Austin Family

Percussion Section Chair: Christy Ball In Memory of Clyde and Milton Rutledge

The Wilmington Symphony Orchestra can also provide a variety planned giving options, including charitable bequests, charitable remainder trusts, life insurance beneficiary designation, and stocks and bonds. For more information, visit “Planned Giving” at www.wilmingtonsymphony.org or contact the Symphony Office at 791-9262.